@bayportyc bayportyc
Summer is here and it’s hard to pack all the fun into a few months. Have you ever considered becoming more than a part-time member of our community? Boating is beautiful and the business and investment potential in this area is incredible. Why not move your existing business here, or start a new one? Read more on page 6. Or maybe encourage your child to find a career in boating so they can continue to live the lifestyle they know and love. Did you know Georgian College in Midland and Owen Sound has several marine related programs? Best of all their graduates are in high demand to fill critical shortages in the marine industry. It’s definitely something to think about. Bay Port isn’t only a place to dock your boat. We are proud community partners, sponsoring local events like the Tall Ships event and the summer concert series. We encourage the next generation of boat-lovers by supporting Atlantic Challenge Canada and sailing camp at the Midland Bay Sailing Club. It’s finding exceptional staff like Kyle MacDonald who didn’t just grow up at Bay Port but pursued his passion for boating at Georgian College and then honed his skills at our other marinas before taking on the role of Service Manager at Bay Port. His knowledge is exceptional, whether it’s understanding today’s rapidly evolving marine technology or simply knowing your need to get back on the water quickly after a breakdown. It’s sourcing the best products for our boaters like ValvTect fuels to protect your engine and optimize performance. We’re the only marina to offer them. Turn the page to learn more.

It’s organizing guided cruises (see pages 8-9) to ensure our new boaters experience the best of the bay and build confidence. It’s investing heavily in our marina. Not long ago we were struggling with record low water levels. Those levels have rebounded in recent years and now the water is at least 1 metre above chart datum. Fluctuating water levels creates challenges with our dock ramps and we’re working to resolve those issues. Constant property improvements are essential to keeping Bay Port the best on the bay. We’ve added new asphalt, lighting and plenty of picnic tables for your enjoyment. The power and reach of our WiFi has been increased. We’ve also installed new fencing for added security and undertaken a major reconstruction of I dock. And those are the things you can see. One of the things you can’t see is the $100,000 we’ve spent on our boat handling equipment like the Travelift and trailers. Such upgrades and improvements ensure your experience is exactly what it should be. Thank you for choosing Bay Port year after year. This season let us help you make the most of your time on the water.
Valvtect: Only at Bay Port

Valvtect marine fuels inhibit corrosion, clean-up deposits, extend fuel filter life and offer superior engine performance – and they’re only available at Bay Port.

Bay Port is the only marina to offer specially formulated ValvTect Fuels to our boaters. That's important for a number of reasons. Today's ethanol fuels, ultra-low sulfur diesel and biofuels are refined for automotive use making them perfect for cars, but a problem for marine engines. Marine conditions like heat and high humidity/moisture, vented fuel tanks, higher loads, and engines and fuel that sit unused for long periods have created a need for better fuel to prevent problems, expensive repairs or failure. Some after-market fuel treatments can actually cause harm. ValvTect products are carefully tested to strict industry standards and offer documented performance. Ethanol and reformulated gasoline can cause corrosion, phase separation, destabilization (oxidation), carbon deposits and loss of octane. ValvTect Marine Gasoline Program and Treatment offers a solution for these common problems. Specially formulated for marine engines, it inhibits corrosion, adds stabilizer for better storage, cleans-up deposits, extends fuel filter life, reduces fuel consumption and offers top tier performance.

Ultra-low sulfur diesel and biodiesel may be good for the environment (reduced exhaust emissions, soot, smoke, odor) but is bad for marine diesel making them susceptible to bacteria growth, plugged fuel filters, sludge and corrosion, premature wear, as well as injector, fuel pump and seal problems. ValvTect formulated marine diesel prevents bacteria, cleans deposits, inhibits corrosion, extends fuel filter life and more. Superior performance of a clean engine can save 6-15 cents per gallon. Want the full story? We’re happy to explain it.
Trent Severn Waterway Improvements

Parks Canada is investing over $3 billion to rehabilitate infrastructure assets including the Trent Severn Waterway. Several major projects have been completed in recent years and more like the Port Severn fixed bridge are underway thanks to the major infusion of essential funds. The website www.pc.gc.ca/en/lhn-nhs/on/trentsevern/visit/infrastructure has an interactive map showing current and completed projects throughout the waterway and should be consulted to ensure no delays if you are planning a Trent-Severn trip this summer.

The historic waterway’s 386 km of interconnected lakes and rivers is open from May 17 to October 14. A seasonal pass, that allows unlimited travel in both directions throughout the entire 2019 boating season, costs $8.80 per foot. A one-day pass costs $1.60 per foot. If you plan to tie up overnight at one of the lock stations an additional fee of 90 cents per foot, per night is applied. Or purchase a seasonal overnight pass for $9.80 per foot.

Cradle Maintenance

Winter was hard on all of us, including the boat cradles, many of which are not just unsightly, but unsafe. This summer give some much needed TLC to this important support system for your prized possession. Please label with your name and your boat name, lubricate moving parts, paint it and replace the carpet. We are here to lend a hand with this important task if you need it.

Explore the Bay Today

There is a whole world on the water waiting to be discovered. Make this the summer you find your new favourite destination on Georgian Bay. We can help. Consider one of our suggested destinations to discover.

Kilcoursie Bay in Killbear Provincial Park in Parry Sound

Another awesome boater destination is Kilcoursie Bay. The park map (pictured) shows a triangle area which is the designated boat anchoring area. The picturesque spot is nestled between Scott Island and the 2 km horseshoe shaped beach of the park. That inviting curve of sand breaks up the surrounding rugged rocky shoreline and provides a sheltered spot for swimming. A fee applies to anchor here and that means you can use all the park’s facilities including hiking and biking trails and comfort stations.

 Please note the bay is a lake trout sanctuary and closed to lake trout fishing year round. But there are plenty of other areas to start your own fish tale of the one that got away.

Insider's Tip:
Enjoy daily interpretive programs including guided hikes, musical concerts and children’s programs. Just across the bay is the Killbear’s Visitor Centre with interactive exhibits and popular attractions such as the live Massasauga Rattlesnake and Eastern Fox Snake.
Regatta Bay on Franklin Island near Snug Harbour

Venture a little further north to discover the popular, well protected Regatta Bay. If you listen carefully you just might hear the echoes of the past, the young women from the YWCA camp who sailed here in the early 1900s. Located on the eastern side of Franklin Island the clay bottom of Regatta Bay provides good holding and it is possible to tie to the wall, depending on the season's water levels. The entire island is public and invites exploration of its many secret nooks and hideaways.

Insider's Tip:
Dinghy in to Gilly's Snug Harbour Restaurant for a fish dinner (or give them a call at (705) 342-5552 for a ride)

Three Finger Bay

Against a backdrop of windswept pines Massasauga Provincial Park is a cruiser's dream. Seven designated anchoring bays await and we recommend you try Three Finger Bay. When heading north on the inside channel turn off the main channel past Wreck Island and before Henry's Fish Restaurant in Sans Souci. Three Finger Bay is to the North. The bottom provides excellent holding for your anchor. There is a fee for tying to shore overnight, but no charge to swing on anchor.

Always consult your charts, go slowly and use a bow watch when entering unfamiliar water. Fluctuating water levels make it difficult to spot shoals.

Insider's Tip:
Take the dinghy to Wreck Island to snorkel the wreck or hike the island. Or dinghy to the Moon River falls further south in the park for an afternoon of picnicking and swimming.
Any time of year is perfect for cruising but fall is a beautiful time to take a trip on the Trent Severn Waterway to enjoy the colours.

Tall Ships Challenge Ontario

This year a new event sails into Midland with the Tall Ships Challenge Ontario festival August 9-11.
The weekend kicks off Friday at 7 p.m. with a War of 1812 re-enactment that begins with a naval battle before moving ashore and culminating in the “capture” of the mayor and “surrender” of the town.
Tour the tall ships including Pride of Baltimore, The Madelaine, St. Lawrence and the Playfair on Saturday and Sunday in Midland. The Royal Canadian Navy modern vessel Oriole will also cruise into port for the weekend.
Take in plenty of other on-dock activities throughout the weekend including an artisans’ market, buskers, fife and drums, interactive theatre and performances by francophone and indigenous groups. As part of the weekend Discovery Harbour in Penetanguishene will host four tall ships and an encampment of over 800 re-enactors.
Weekend passes for both events are available.

Just be sure you are docked or anchored for the night before serving up this or any other alcoholic drink.
